

Annual Report 2008-2009

Yet another good year for Central London CTC. Reflecting the recent boom in cycling, we had some record attendances over the summer, with up to 30 on a single ride. I'm especially pleased to see how many newcomers have turned into regulars. We hope the 'joint rides', where all the differing grades meet up, have become an established event for each ride list, including the Xmas lunch next month at Lilley. The various tours have all been well received, and you'll already have seen adverts for next year's offerings.

As I am not standing for re-election, I would like once more to thank all of you who have put in so much work - the committee, who bring you the ride list and the website, keep an eye on finances and guide us along. The leaders, who provide the rides and tours, often a thankless task. And above all the members, who make Central London CTC all that it is. Thank you, good luck, and may our tradition continue.
